

Angelica Berrie is President of The Russell Berrie Foundation. Angelica currently serves as Chairman of Shalom Hartman Institute North America, a center for transformative study and thinking. She Chairs the Board of the Center for Inter-Religious Understanding in New Jersey.

She helped found Gilda's Club of Northern New Jersey and became Board Chair of Gilda's Club Worldwide, a free social and emotional support network of clubhouses for families living with cancer across North America. She is on the Board of the Joint Distribution Committee and President of Ofanim, a nonprofit organization in Israel whose mission is to deliver high-quality supplemental education to children in the periphery using mobile classrooms.

After the death of her husband, New Jersey sales entrepreneur and philanthropist, Russell Berrie, Angelica assumed the role of Vice-Chair and C.E.O. of Russ Berrie & Co., a global gift company known for its Teddy bears and RUSS Trolls. She is currently CEO of Kate's Paperie, an iconic New York paper specialty retailer; a partner in Boston International, a wholesale gift company specializing in paper party goods, and Chairman of Global Nomad, an experiential travel design company based in Hong Kong. Most recently, Angelica co-authored a book on philanthropy entitled: A Passion for Giving: Tools and Inspiration for Creating a Charitable Foundation.